Serious illness, trauma or grief can create spiritual distress leaving one struggling with questions such as “Why is this happening to me?” “What do I have to live for?” “Has God abandoned me?” “Is there even a God?” “Will I die?” “What now?”

The issues of living with cancer, and the possibility of dying from it, can shake the foundation of your life and its meaning. Spiritual pain affects the whole person – body, mind and spirit. As you live with cancer, you need to gather support and resources for your whole self. You need to know that there is a safe place where you can share your fears, your emotions, and your struggle to find meaning, comfort, and hope.

CantBelieveIHaveCancer™ has been created with the expert help of professional board-certified health care chaplains who are experienced in attending to the questions and concerns that you, as someone diagnosed with cancer or as a caregiver, are most likely dealing with. We understand that spirituality, religion, and beliefs are unique to each person and the information and resources here respect those differences.

The site includes the ChatWithAChaplain feature where you can connect by email at www.cantbelieveihavecancer.org or phone at 844-CHAPLAIN (844-242-7524) with a professional chaplain who is trained to listen and offer spiritual care to everyone regardless of religion or beliefs.

Another feature of CantBelieveIHaveCancer lets you submit a prayer request so that chaplains and colleagues will pray for you and your loved ones.

CantBelieveIHaveCancer is a free service of HealthCare Chaplaincy Network, a national health care organization dedicated to helping people faced with the distress of illness and suffering find comfort and meaning. Learn more at www.healthcarechaplaincy.org.
